

island PROMOTIONS

23/12/07

To whom it may concern,

Karuna Hastie worked at Island Promotions in Northbridge, WA, as a sales representative for a period of two years and four months, commencing August 2005.

During this time I found Karuna to be an honest and reliable worker who got on well with her teammates.

Sadly for us, Karuna decided an extended holiday to Europe was important to her and as a result she handed in her notice.

Karuna's key qualities were her incredible energy and persistence and above average sales and customer service skills. She had a loyal clientele that she continued to grow right up until she resigned.

I would have no reservation in recommending Karuna to future employers and would hire her again if she wished to resume her sales career.

If you require a verbal reference please feel free to contact me.
